

Peachland Art Gallery

2018 Schedule of Exhibitions

“Ekphrastic Exhibit” / Fibre Art Network

Featuring a travelling exposition representing a unique showcase of the collective talents of 48 fibre artists and 12 Canadian poets.

Saturday, Jan. 13th - Saturday, February 10th

“Captured Images”

One of the largest and longest running fine art photography exhibitions in the Okanagan.

Saturday, February 17th - Sunday, April 1st

“Emotion vs Logic: Approaches to Abstract”

Two opposing approaches to abstract painting challenging the dichotomy between intuition and rational thought presented by Fiona Neal & Brazen Edwards.

Saturday, April 7th - Sunday, May 13th

“Between Heaven & Earth”

A collection of acrylics and tapestries inspired by the power of the Canadian landscape individually expressed by accomplished artists Richard W. Crack, Dennis Evans & Susan Crack.

Saturday, May 19th - Sunday, June 24th

5th Annual “Oasis” Exhibition

Federation of Canadian Artists / Central Okanagan Chapter

Saturday, June 30th - Monday July 30th

“Artists in Studio”

Featuring new local artists working weekly and displaying in the Gallery.

Tuesday, July 31st - Monday, Aug. 27th

“Mindscapes”

An exhibition that will capture viewers with diverse styles and subject matter presented by “On the Edge Collective” - Lisa Hewitt, Allanah Weston, Elaine Hatch & Carney Oudendag.

Saturday, August 4th - Monday, August 27th

“Ubuntu 5 / On The Rim – Haida Gwaii”

Ubuntu 5, a group of 5 women artists presenting an exhibition of works celebrating humanity. Mary Stebbins, Holly Smith, Bonnie Jackson, Lois Campbell & Sandi Sasges.

Exhibiting with Ubuntu 5 is artist Enda Bardell showcasing a fabulous collection of watercolours representing the ruggedness of Haida Gwaii.

Saturday, Sept. 1st - Sunday, September 30th

“Kelowna Painters Studio Society”

A group of 12 established local artists who have held many shows over the years and continue to bring a high standard of fine art to the public.

Saturday, October 6th - Sunday, November 4th

“Artists of the Okanagan”

This popular exhibition returns for its 3rd year featuring local artists displaying works representing a variety of mediums.

Saturday, November 10th - Sunday, December 23rd