

PEACHLAND ART GALLERY CALL FOR 2023 EXHIBITION PROPOSALS

The Peachland Community Arts Council is currently accepting exhibition proposals for 2023.

Exhibitions are juried by a committee of arts professionals and the Peachland Gallery Coordinator. The Peachland Art Gallery accepts proposals from individual and groups of artists, curators, and non-profit organizations. Applicants may submit more than one proposal but will not have multiple proposals selected. Applicants do not need to be PCAC members to submit a proposal. However, successful applicants must be members at the time of their exhibitions. Non-profit organizations may purchase an organizational membership.

The gallery charges 25% commission on sales. PST is collected.

Each exhibition runs approximately four to six weeks. Artists are responsible for having their work ready to hang at the time of their exhibition. Peachland Art Gallery will provide overall exhibition coordination, which includes curatorial direction, preparatory assistance, and promotion. The total linear footage of the gallery is 150 feet.

Exhibition proposals should include:

1. Title or Theme of Proposal.
2. Preference of months: We suggest you submit a minimum of 3 choices. Please keep in mind there is no guarantee of month choice, but we will try to accommodate as best as we can.
3. Curriculum vitae for each participating artist.
4. Medium to be exhibited.
5. Approximate number and sizes of works to be exhibited.
6. Photos should be of work only and not include matting, frame, etc.
7. For group proposals: 4 – 6 good quality digital photos per participating artist, submitted on CD or USB drive, or via email to pcacgallerycoordinator@gmail.com.
8. If submitting as a group, artist name should be clearly labeled with the submitted images.
9. For individual artworks: Title, Medium & Size.

The deadline for exhibition proposals is Friday, September 23rd / 2022.

If accepted, submitted images may be used for promotions and advertising, all submitted works must be available for exhibition, excluding group submissions.

The Peachland Community Arts Council reserves the right to refuse to display any artwork, even after initial acceptance of the submission. All decisions of the jury are final.

The Peachland Community Arts Council will contact the artist regarding acceptance and directions on submission pick up/inventory drop off. All participating artists must sign a waiver form.
