Art/Fabric Journal

Lisa Hewitt Working with acrylics, inks, texture mediums and collage, Lisa creates nonrepresentational mixed media works. These days, she is adding ink drawings on top of her abstracted backgrounds. Her workshop is called "Fearless"

Maureen Warren creates wonderful figures with her "wireart" called Paverpol. This is an opportunity to create a beautiful dancer, a clown, or a favorite animal in a one-day workshop. All supplies included. See Maureen's web site for pictures:

Carney Oudendag's workshop is a beginner level session, "Mixed Media Medley" is aimed at all levels of ability. Techniques include simple printmaking, image transfers, texture and more. Acrylic paints used. Carney is a well-known Kelowna artist and teacher.

In December, Mary Walker will present "Learn to Quill" a lost art from the 13th Century. Using the quilling shapes, you will create a Christmas disc. This is a beginner class with a well-known local artist.

Mary's Quilling Disc

Joanne Fisette is an award-winning art quilt artist and teacher. She will teach "How to make a journal", and pages using a variety of fabric and paper techniques to create reference samples and inspirational ideas. Join us for a fun day to get you started in an innovative adventure!

Carney Oudendag will teach "Art Journal Bootcamp" in February. You will learn how to embellish journal pages with a variety of techniques. All levels of interest are welcome for this workshop.

Frances Stocks a noted local artist, whose paintings of Peachland scenes are so popular, has agreed to teach a watercolour workshop in March.

Pat Ryan will teach a "Learn to Paint with Alcohol Ink" workshop in April.. Her work was in the Art Walk this summer.
